REPLY TO ITALY.

Correspondence Between Mr. Blaine and Premier Rudini.

AN IMPORTANT DOCUMENT.

Action on the New Orleans Affair Not to Be Harried and the Law Will Take Its Course Notwithstanding Italy's Impatience.

Washington, April 16. - Secretary Blaine's reply to 1 remier Rudini's last official atterance respecting the Italian incident was completed and handed to Marquis Imperiali' yesterday. Mar uis Imperiali's last note, which includes the Rudini dispatch, and Secretary Blaine's reply were g ven to the press last night. The cor: espondence reads as follows:

"Washington, April 2, 1891. 'Mr. Secretary of State:

"I hasten to acknowledge the receipt of the note which your excellency did me the henor to address to me on the 1st inst., in reply to that whereby Baron Fava informed you of his departure on its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

"The words "Cur rights therefore to victims is unquestionable,' are precisely those which I quoted in my former note, and I am directed by the president to express the satisfaction of this government with the very material qualification of the demand unade by the Marquis Rudini on behalf of the Italian govern-

"You quote in your uote another part of the Marquis Rudini's telegram of April 2 in these words: 'Meanwhile his majesty's government takes note of the declaration whereby the Federal goverument recognizes that an indemity is due to the families of the victims in virtue of the treaty in force between the two countries.'

"If the Marquis Rudini will carefully examine my note of April 1 he will discover that I did not 'recognize that an indemnity is due to the families of the victlms in virtue of the treaty in force between the two countries.'

"What I did say was in answer to Baron Fava's assertion that the United States government refused to take this demand for indemnity into considera-tion. I quote my reply: 'The United States, so far from refusing, has distinctly recognized the principle of indemnity to those Italian subjects who may have been wronged by a violation of the rights secure to them under the treaty with the United States concluded Feb. 26, 1871.

States is pledged. But this assurance leaves unsettled the important cuestion whether the treaty has been violated. Upon this point the president, with sufficient facts placed be one mim. has taken full time for decision. I e now directs that certain consi erations on the general subject le submitted to the ju gment of the Italian government.

sa preced nto great value to the ca-e under discussion, the president recalls the conclusion maintained ty Mr. Webs er in 18-1, when he was secretary of state under resident l'ulln ore. In August of that year a mob i New of rleans demolished the bildin c in which the office of the Spanish consult the names of name of whom are known the names of name of whom are known that the mob acted in the heat of blood and not in pursuance of any premeditated plan or pursuance of the spanish consult the names of name of whom are known that the mob acted in the heat of blood and not in pursuance of any premeditated plan or pursuance of the spanish consult the names of name of whom are known was located, and at the same time attacks were made upon coffee houses and cigar shops kept b Spanish subjects.

I merican itizens were involved in the losses, which, in the aggregate were large. It is supposed cause of the mobilization of the supposed cause of the mobilization of the involved in the lamentable occurrence at New Orleans. was the intelligen e of the execution of firty young Americans in Havana, and the lagishment to panish mines of nearly 20; citizens of the United States. The vi tims were all members of the alo. tive o e. e pedition.

"in come nence of these depredations the losses, both official and pers nal.

"Mr. Webster admitted that the Spanish consul was entitled to indemnity, and assured the Spanish minister that if the in ured cousnl, Mr. Laborde, shall return to his post, or any other consul or . ew (rleans shall le appointedby Her Catholic Majesty's government, the officers of this government resident in that city, will be instructed to receive and treat him with courtesy. and with a national salute to the flag of his ship, if he shall arrive in a Spanish vessel, as a d monstration of respect. such as may signify to him, and to his government, the sense entertained by the government of the United States of the gross injustice done to his prede essor by lawless a mob as well as the indignity and insult offered by it to a foreign state with which the United States are, and wish to remain, on terms of the most respectful and pacific inter course.

"But when pressed by the Spanish minister to afford indemnity to Spanish subjects in need by the mob in common with American citizens, Mr. Webster declined to accede to the demand, and gave his reasons, as follows: 'This government supposes that the rights of the Spanish consul, a public officer residing here under the protection of the United States government, are quite different from those of the panish subjects who have come into the country to mingle with our own citizens and he e to pur-sue their private business and objects. The former may claim special indemnity: the latter are entitled to such protection as is afforded to our own citizens. while, therefore, the losses of individuals, private Spanish subjects, are greatly to be regretted, yet it is understood that many American citizens snfrered e ual losses from the same cause; claim and these private individuals, subjects of her catholic majesty, coming volunsame a ministration of law, as native born citlzens of this country. They have, in fact, some advantage over citizens of the state in which they happen to be, inasmuch as they are enabled, un-"This povernment certainly had no til they become citizens themselves, to prosecute for any in uries done to their persons or property, in the courts of the United States, or the state courts at their election. ".t is proper, however, to add that two years after Mr. Webster wrote the foregoing note, congress, in recognition of certain magnanimous conduct on the part of the Queen of Spain in pardons bestowed on Americans who had unjustifiably invaded the island of Cuba, enacted a joint resolution, approved by President Fillmore March 3, 1853, the last day of his term, Indemnifying the Spanish consul and other Spanish subjects for the losses sustained in the New Orleans will be supported by the support of the losses sustained in the New Orleans will be supported by the support of the suppo tions upon which this resolution was passed were held not to contravene the original position of Mr. Webster, shared also b. President Fillmore. "The right to judicial remedy which Mr. Webster assured to the Spanish subjects is likewise assured to the Italian subjects. The right is specially guaranteed in the second section of the third article of the constitution. And, demand and obtain the punishment of the nurderers and an indennity for the victims is unquestionable. as Mr. Webster points out, the resident mob vio ence, may sue the leaders and by lawless violence. members of the mob only in courts of the state of Louislana; while the widows and children of the Italian subjects who suffered death, have the right to sue each member of the mob, not only in the state courts, but before the Federal tribunals for the district of Louisiana.

'Provision is made in the revised civil code of Louisiana for redress-of such grievances as the widows and children of the victims may plead. I quote: 'Article 2314. Every act whatever of man that causes damage to another, obliges him by whose fault it happened to repair it: the right of this action shall survive, in case of death, in favor of the minor children and widow of the de-ceased, or either of them, and in default of these in favor of the surviving father or mother, or either of them, for the space of one year from the death.'

"'Article 2316. Every person is responsible for the damage he occasions, not merely by his act, but by his negligible for the damage or his want of gence, his imprudence, or his want of skill.'

"Article 2324. He who causes another person to do an unlawful act, or assist or encourages in the commission of it, is answerable in solido with that person for the damage caused by such

Feb. 26, 1871. "The government of the United States would feel justified in resting on the argument and conclusion of Mr. webster if the mob of March 14, 1891, might be wronged by a violation of a treaty to which the fulth of the United differ from the mob of 185t. But it is due to entire candor, due to this government, and due to the government of Italy, to joint out certain discrences of which the government of the Unitel States is honorably bound to take no-

In the case of the mob of 1801. Mr. Webster asserts that 'no personal in ury was offered to anyone; that 'the police and other legid on horities did all that was possible to pre-crye the peace and arrest the rioters' that 'the mob acted pose of in uny or insult; that "the mob was composed of irresponsible persons, the names of none of whom are known to the government of the United States the president directed the attorney gento cause through his department a opinion whether any criminal precedings would lie under the Federal laws in the Federal courts against persons charged with the killing of Italian subof the mob upon the property of the Spanish consul, as well as against the spanish subjects, Douglideron de la larca, the minister of Spanish consultation for all statutes of the United States, the case will be presented to the next grand enry according to the usual methods of criminal administration. But if it shall be found, as seems possible that criminal proceedings can only be taken in the courts of Louisiana: the resident can, in this direction, do no more than to urge upon the state o ficers the duty of promptly bringing the odenders to tria. This was done in his telegram to the governor of Louisiana as early as the Lath of March. "If it shall result that the case can be projected only in the state courts of Louisiana, and the usual judicial investigation and proceedure under the criminal law is resorted to—it will then be the duty of the United State: to consider whether some other form of reders may be asked. It is understood that the state grand jury is now investigating the uffair, and while it is possible that the jury may fail to present indictments, the United States cannot assume that such will be the case. "The United States did not by the treaty with taly b come the insurer of the lives or property of Italian subjects resident within our territory. No gov-ernment is able, however high its civilization, vigilant its police supervision. however severe its criminal code, and however prompt and inflexible its criminal administration, to se are its own citizens against violence promoted by malice or by sudden popular tumula. The foreign resident must be content in such cases to share the same rearess that Is offered by the law to the citizens and has no just cause of complaint, or ri ht to ask the interposition of his country, if the courts are equally of en to him for the rearess of his injuries.

"The treaty in the first, second, third. and notably in the twenty-third articles, clearly limits the rights guaranteed to the citizens of the contracting powers in the territory of each to equal treatment and to free access to the courts of justice. Foreign residents are not made a favored clas. It is not believed that Italy wo ld desire a more stringent construction of her duty under the trenty. Where the injury inflicted upon a foreign resident is not the act of the government, or of its officers, but of an individual or of a mob. it is believed that no claim for indemnity can justly be made unless it shall be made to appear that the public authorities charged with the peace of the commun ty have connived at the unlawful act, or having timely notice of the threatened danger. have been guilty of such gross negligence in taking necessary precautions as to amount to connivance.

"If, therefore, it should appear that among those killed by the mob at New Orleans there were some Italian subjects who were resident or domiciled in that city, agreeably to our treaty with Italy, and not in violation of our immigration laws, and who were abiding in the Leace of the United States and obeying the laws thereof and of the state of Louisana, and that the public officers charged with the dnty of protecting life and property in that city connived at the work of the mob, or upon proper notice or information of t ethreatened danger, failed to take any steps for the preservation of the public peace, and afterwards to bring the guilty to trial, the president would, under such circumstances, feel that a case was e tablished that should be submitted to the consideration of congress with a view to the relief of the Italian subjects who had lost their lives

"Accept, sir, the renewed assurance of my high consideration.
"JAMES G. BLAINE."

Pants, April 16.—Dispatches received here from Chili state that a desperate kattle, resulting in a victory for the Chilian insurgent forces, has been fonglit at Co iapo or San Francisco de Silva, as it is also known) the capital of the province of Atacama, on the river Copiapo, thirty miles from the sea.
(nly meager details of the battle are given in the depatches mentioned, which say that the insurgents after a long and determined struggle defeated with a long valery of 2000 of

with a hea y loss a force of 3,000 of President Bahnaceda's troops.

The dispatches, which are supposed to originate from an insurgent source, adds that the insurgent army is increasing steadily in strength and that it intends shortly to ma ch upon the capital, Santiago de Chili, as well as upon Valparaiso, the principal port of Chili.

Copiapo, where the battle has just been to ght, is an important mining and mer antice center, from which nunch silver and copyer ores are shipped to Europe and elsewhere.

War Rapidly Approaching.

St. PETERSBURG, April 16.—In spite of the peaceful utterances of government officia s in Europe and in Russia, everybody knows that Russia is making extensive preparations for war and that her rivals are on their side making counter preparations for the great strugge which must sooner or later take p ace.

Knssia has been spen ing enormous sums in the construction of strategical railways, and in this and other ways the arrangements for the transportation of large bodies of Russian troops to the Austro-German frontier are almost completed. This movement of Russian forces toward the frontier of Ge.many and Au tria would four years ago have re uired six months' time, while by the use of the new strategic raroads a month stime is all that is necessary for the vast concentration of troops which is looked forward to in possibly, the near future.

Dread the Germans.

Berlin, April 16.—A letter received from Father Schyn e, a Catholic missionary ln German East Africa. states that the country east of Lake Victoria is not the fertile region it has been represented, and that large tracts are uninhabitable for dryness and want of water. He says that the natives of German East Africa have a wholesome dreat of the Germans, owing to the victories of Lmiu's forces.

The Queen Indisposed.

LONDON, April 16,-A dis atch from Gras e says that Queen \ictoria has been somewhat indisposed owing to anxiety abo t the insurection Manipari. On the evening of the day that she heard of the massacre she politely declined to listen to the unusic of the band which the 1 rench authorities sent nightly to play in front of her hotel. She recovered spirits somewhat on subsequent news of British success.

Struggie for Enropean Supremacy. ST. PETERSBURG, April 16.—The continned movement of Russian troops along the new strategical railway to the Austrian and German frontiers, gives rise to the belief that the peaceful declarations of the government are not sincere. it is agreed on all sides that a general struggle for Luropean supremacy is indicated by current events.

The Oldest Family.

In matter of antiquity Mohammed must yield precedence to the Chinese philosopher, Confucius, who died 479 years before the Christian era. There is zo known race that can boast of an antiquity like his. On the occasion of the death of the Chinese statesman, known in Europe and America as the Marquis Tsang, we learned that his title of noblility was due, not to any connection with Confucius himself, but to his descent from one of the four chief disciples of the great teacher.

There are, however, very namerous living descendants of Confucius; and although he has been dead 2,370 years, superior rank is conceded to them in China solely from their relationship to him. Moreover, when Confuclus was born, 550 B. C., his family was already among the most ancient of the empire, and had a recorded history of more than The Graud Lodge of Keutucky Knights three centuries. Tradition goes still further back, extending the probable duration of the family to little less than 3,000 years.—Chicago Times.

Vespuelus' Descendant.

It is rather remarkable that so many men identified with the early history of this continent should have living descendants. Many of us remember the lady who visited New York some years ugo who claimed descent from Americus Vespucins, and had a conviction on her mind that the Congress of the United States ought to bestow some kind of pecuniary recognition on the name. Congress was not in a pensioning frame of mind and she returned home no richer than she came.

Her visit, however, led to a close investigation of the career of her ancestor, which resulted in the discovery that the word America originated in a name given by the natives to a portion of the coast which he visited. Nevertheless the lady is believed to have been lineally descended from Americus Vespucius, or rather the person whose name was Latinized into that form.—Chicago Times.

Illue Grass (Ky.) District, 109 hhds Brown County (Ohio) District and 13 hhds West Virginia.

Total offerings for the week thus far 438 hhds, of which 305 hhds were new, against 416 hhds the previous week, of which 233 hhds were new, and 554 hhds the corresponding week last year, of which 400 hhds were new. Total offerings for the year to date 35,213 hhds, of which 12,726 hhds were new, against 33,015 hhds the same time last year, of which 14,239 hhds were new.

The week's business opens with offerings of fairly good size, and there was an Improvement shown over last week, there being more spirit in the bidding, and a firm, active market prevailed. Old good and fine leaf, of which there was only a small supply, was sought after and taken at full figures. An active demand was shown for colory trash and lugs at full prices. Medium leal holds in good request, and the common grades show a good demand and sell well. The market for new was firm, with an active demand for medium to good leaf, which kind is taken readily at full prices, as also those grades with color and character. Common trash, lugs or unondescripts are in only fair demand.

Of the 438 hhds, 133 sold from $1 to $3.95, 88 from $4 to $5.90, 64 from $6 to $7.90, 28 from $8 to $9.90, 59 from $10 to $14.75, 61 from $15 to $19.75, aud 5 from $20 to $21.50.

WHO STOLE THE PUPS?

A Case That Has Been Attracting Considerable Attention This Week.

On Friday night, April 10, two pups of the Water Spaniel breed were stolen from the cellar of the Grand View Hotel.

Mr. M. E. McKellup, proprietor of the hotel, valued the pups highly, so he called in Mr. W. B. Dawson next day, placed the $10 for their recovery.

On Tuesday morning Mr. Dawson learned the pups were at the house of Sam McKinevan, a colored man who lives in Chester. Mr. Dawson called in Marshall Hughes of that place, McKinevan's and were returned to their owner.

McKinevan was arrested and placed under bond for his appearance before Judge Phister for trial. The examination ended shortly before twelve o'clock yesterday, and resulted in the discharge of the accused. He was fined $3 during agents. the trial for contempt of court. Before the case was called he promised to tell who brought the pups to him, but did not do so on the stand.

The grand jury is investigating the ease. Mr. McKellup is determined to find out the guilty parties, and have them pun-

Mlle. Marie Decca.

Mlle. Marie Deeca, who will be remembered by many people as Miss Mallie Jolanson, will appear at the Odeon, Cincinnati, April 29, in a grand concert by the National Marine Band. Her reputation as a songstress is not confined to this eountry.

She was born in Georgetown, O., and is the only daughter of the venerable Judge Sanders Johnston, of Washington, D. C. and granddaughter of General Thomas H. Hamer, of Mexican war fame. She was educated at the Sacred Heart Convent of New York, and speaks French and Italian like a native. She received Fair Commissioner-at-Large by President her musical training in Paris, under the tuition of Mme. Marchesi, for three years. Miss Decca made her debut at Covent Garden, London, England, under the management of Colonel Mapleson, as the 'Queen of Night" in Mozart's "Magie Flute," and made an immediate success. She sang three seasons with Her Majesty's Italian Opera. She has been also very successful in concerts, oratories and festivals all over England and France. Married His Son's Widow.

The Winchester Democrat says: "On April 4th William Monroe, aged 68 years, applied to the County Clerk for lieense to marry the widow of his son, John Monroe, aged 48. As this is forbidden by law, of course the Clerk refused. The would-be-groom sent for Judge James French, who informed him mer would not be satisfied until the scriptures were read to him. Monroe's wife has been dead less than a year, while the woman's husband died since Christmas."

This couple came here a few days after the above date and were married by Judge Phister, the bride giving the name of Mattie Aldred. On the train and at the Clerk's office they attracted much attention by the giddy manner in which President Harrison in Chattanooga and Atlanta.

VISIT TO LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN.

The President Points Out to Ilis Wife One of the Spots Where He Was Encamped During the War - Traveling Over the Bonte of Sherman's March to the Sea-Ilis Reception at Atlanta.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 16.—The presidential party arrived in Chattanooga at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning after a run of four hours and a half from Knoxville. At Sherman Heights a local committee, leaded by ex-Congressman H. Clay Evans and Mayor Merrion, of Chattaneoga, Lon ded the train. With them was Mr. Curter Harri-on, the prosident's brother who lives at Murfreesboro, Tenn. As the train neared Chattanooga it became ap arent that great preparations were being made for the reception of the distinguished guest and his followers. Steam whistles in the outskirts of the city blew an ear-splitting welcome, while the employees of all the manufacturing establishments on the railroad shonted and waved their hats as the train went by.

At the depot at Chattanooga representatives of the chamber of commerce and public officials met the president and escorted him and his party in carriages to the foot of Lookout mountain, where cars were taken for the summit. At the Lookout inn, the president pointed out to Mrs. Harrison tho spot where he was encamped at one time during the war. From the mountain the party was driven about the city, which was profusely decorated with bunting. The streets were crowded with enthusiastic citizens, and all the school children in the city stood in front of their respective schools and waved flags and shouted as the presidential party drove by. The military companies of the city also paraded. The drive ended at a temporary platform, about which an immense assemblage was packed. Here the president was introduced to the crowd by ex-Congressman Evans in a brief steech. The president made a short address, at many points of which he was enthusiastically cheered.

After the president had concluded his speech, Postmaster General Wanamaker made a short address. After he had spoken the president held a short reception and men, women and children, paying little heed to the cordon of police and militia, crowded forward to get a chance to grasp the president's hand.

The party then proceeded to the depot where the president held another recoption from the platform of the observation. The crowd burst into wild en-thusiasm, which the president acknowl-edged by bowing and smiling until the crowd was left behind.

ATLANTA, April 16.—The pleasure of the trip of the presidential party from Chattanooga, was somewhat marred by the receipt of a dispatch from Private Secretary Halford, announcing Mrs. Halford's death. When informed just after the train left Chattanooga that Mrs. Halford was dead, the president expressed sincere sorrow a d immediately dispatched a message of condolence to Mr. Haiford.

The track of the Western and Atlanta railroad over which the train proceeded to Atlanta marked the line of the route taken by Gen. Sherman on his famous march to the sea. The president and Marshal Ransdell sat in the observation car most of the journey and entertained other members of the party with an account of the battles in which they had participated, while the former was colonel of, and the latter in the ranks of the Seventieth Indiana regiment.

At Ringgold a salute of tw-nty-six guns was fired by the Ringgold Rifles, also at Tunnel Hill and Dallon.

Resaca proved the most interesting to the president of all places along the line of the road. It was here that Marshal Ransdell lost his arm while the Seventieth Indiana and a number of other regiments charged the Confederate intrenchments under command of Col. Harrison, who was one of the fi st over the breastworks." The president pointed out Confederate positions, and talked reminiscently of the battle.

At kingston and Cartersville the president made hrief speeches.

Marietta was the only other stop made before reaching Atlanta except Alatoona gap, between Cartersville and Marietta, where Gen. Sherman signalled from Kennesaw mountains, near Marietta, to Gen. John Corz, "Hold the fort till hell freezes over.'

As the train approached the vicinity of At anta steam whistles from factories and cheers from crowds along the wayside showed that Atlanta's reception was to be a cordial one.

In the vicinity of the depot an immeuse concourse had assembled; fences, railroad cars, telograph poles and all manner of structures being used by those anxious to get a view of the president. Cheering for half an hour was incessant, and as the train moved along crowds of people cheered lustily, closed in after the train and followed running in its wake. The streets in the business portion of the city were fairly jammed with people, who gave their lungs full vent.

As the train came to a standstill, Governor Northen, who had sent Col. West, of his stati, to meet the pre ident at Marietta, came on the platform, and grasping the president's hand, said:
"Mr. President. I welcome you to Georgia, and I am sure you will find us loyal and hospitable." The president's party and local committee took carriages after leaving the train and passed through a line of G. A. R. men and a committee of Confederate veterans, and proceeded in a procession through the principal streets to Peach Tree Creek battlefield on the outskirts of the city, where Col. Harrison commanded the. Seventieth Indiana during the great fight there. A number of houses on the streets along which the president passed were decorated with bunting. At MRS. HALFORD DEAD.

Wife of the President's Private Secretary Dies of Consumption.

Sample Hosicity at Half Price; with some friends in the hotel, were with her in the last hours. Mr. Halford will be buried in Indianapolis on Friday. The president was informed by telegraph of Mrc. Halford's death.

DESERTERS' BONES.

The Myslery of Half'a Hundred Skeletons Solved.

St. Louis, April 16.—The finding of some fifty human skeletons near Corpus Christi, Tex., last week, has attracted wide attention, and many letters of inquiry and explanation have been received at Corpus Christi.

One from William Fayne, manager of the Farmers' Alliance at Whitewright, Tex., seems to solve the mys ery. He says shortly before the close of the war some eighty of his soldier comrades desorted in a body from Hunt county and started for Mexico. Not one of these men have been heard from since, and Mr. Payne thinks they were pursued, captured and e ecuted to a man.

Burglars Use Dynamite.

Anderson, Ind., April 16.—Burglars placed a charge of dynamite in the big safe in the general store of Bernard Brothers Company, at Middleton, last night, and the explosion threw both doors into the street, and ripped up the lower and second floors of the building. Every window and door was blown from its fastenings, and the contents of the store were piled into a confused and broken mass. Houses all over the town were jarred. The burglars got nothing, and they escaped arrest.

A Minister Shot from Amlash. LITTLE ROCK, April 16.—While travoling in a wagon with his wife and four children in the Chickasaw nation Rev. Amos Strickland was fired upon and, it is believed, mortally wounded. The team had stopped beside a stream, and preparation for dinner was being made, when some one concealed in the brush shot Strickland, using a double-barreled shotgun. Strickland was removing from Stone county, Ark., into the terri-

Smith yesterday brought suit in the superior court against the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railroad company to receive wages for overtimo work for the company. He charges that he worked twelve hours per day, and asks for a judgment for four hours' pay for 622 days, at $1.15 per day. The suit is brought under the law making eight hours a day's work, when the number of hours are not specified in the contract.

A New Through Freight Line. COLUMNUS, Ind., April 16.-The Vernon and Greensburg and the Greens-burg and Rushville divisions of the Big Four system, are now in shape to turn over to the Cincinnati, Wabash and Michigan company, which to-day opens up a through freight line between Benton Harbor. Mich., and Louisville. It will not fall into the management or control of the Mackey syndicate, as was first supposed.

Grand Jury Work at Kenton.

KENTON, O., April 16.-The grand jury in their report made seven indictments. Aniong them were indictments against Frank Voel and Torble Lane for murder in the second degree. Voel and and Lane, it is thought, assisted Bales, the lynched criminal, on the evening Policeman Ed. Harper was killed. The jury was unsuccessful in its attempt to find the lynchers of Bales.

Sning for the Loss of a Husband. MARTINSVILLE, Ind., April 16.—Mrs. Christopher Wolf, of Stinesville, has brought suit against the Big Creek Stone Quarry company for $10.000 damages. Christopher Wolf, her hus-band, who was an engineer, stepped out of the engine-house last fall and was killed by a falling derrick. The com-pany carried an insurance on his life for Unknown Man Killed by Cars. AKRON, O., April 16.—An unknown man apparently about 45 years of age, was killed by a Pittsburg and Western express train. He was well dressed but had nothing about him to indicate who he was, except the name R. J. Sanford written in ink on his necktie. His left leg lelow the knee had been cut off and he wore a cork limb.

Another Follower of MacQueary. ZANESVILLE, O., April 16.—The Zanesville presbytery, in session at Newark yesterday, condemned the utterances of Rev. Charles Briggs on the inspiration of the Bible, and called for his speedy trial on the charges preferred against him in New Yester him in New York.

Heiping the Canse. Mrs. Hayfork-Pop, why is it that w'en you take up th' collection at th' church, you always push y'r way into ev'ry pew, instead o' lettin' the people sittin' there pass th' plate along? Deacon Hayfork (a pillar)—So's to step on th' corns o' them sinners wot don't give nothin'.—New York Weekly.

The Eternal Fitness. A man in Oswego died of pneumonia which came from sitting in his wet clothes the battlefield the party went on foot over a part of it, but did not go far enough to see the position occupied hy the president's regiment.

After falling into the lake. And, curiously enough, he was the agent of a clothes wringer, and had 128 of them in the room where he sat dripping wet.enough, he was the agent of a clothes wringer, and had 128 of them in the room where he sat dripping wet.-
